

COML Final Exam Enabling Objectives Review

- 2.1 Define the purpose of the Logistics Section.
- 2.2 Describe the Logistics Section positions and their functions
- 2.3 Describe the responsibilities of the Communications Unit.
- 2.4 Identify and explain common responsibilities of ICS personnel and unit leaders.
- 2.5 Identify responsibilities of the COML.
- 2.6 Identify COML incident information sources.
- 2.7 Identify and describe necessary actions to ensure readiness for assignment.
- 2.8 Describe the information gathered from the initial meetings, briefings, & documents.
- 3.1 Identify positions within the Communications Unit.
- 3.2 Describe responsibilities of positions within the Communications Unit.
- 3.3 Describe the qualification process for the COML.
- 3.4 Identify components of the COML Response Kit.
- 4.1 Define the concept of interoperability.
- 4.2 Identify and describe the five lanes of the SAFECOM Interoperability Continuum.
- 5.1 Identify the factors influencing frequency coordination efforts.
- 5.2 Understand local use agreements and special temporary authorizations.
- 5.3 Identify and describe considerations in recognizing and preventing interference.
- 5.4 Identify modes of typical types of radio systems in use today.
- 5.5 Describe the Public Safety Spectrum Bands.
- 5.6 Identify methods of resolving interference issues.
- 6.1 Describe use of command and tactical nets.
- 6.2 Identify requirements for establishing an incident radio communications system.
- 6.3 Describe specific communication information gathered.

COML Final Exam Enabling Objectives Review

- 6.4 Evaluate needs and order supplies, materials, and personnel to keep unit operating.
- 7.1 Explain the purpose of ICS Form 205.
- 7.2 Identify critical information to be included in an ICS Form 205 by completing ICS Form 217A.
- 7.3 Identify security requirements for ICS Forms 217A and 205.
- 7.4 Describe the proper dissemination of the ICS Form 205.
- 8.1 Discuss working relationships within the Communications Unit.
- 8.2 Discuss methods of organizing unit personnel.
- 8.3 Discuss important considerations in laying out the Communications Unit area.
- 8.4 Identify and discuss the interactions between the COML and key individuals and sub-organizations.
- 8.5 Identify responsibilities of the Communications Unit positions.
- 8.6 Describe COML responsibilities at the ICC.
- 9.1 Determine personnel requirements.
- 9.2 Conduct Communications Unit Briefings.
- 9.3 Describe personnel welfare requirements.
- 9.4 Identify Personnel Management documentation
 - 10.1 Describe the components for the demobilization plan and procedure involved in demobilization (including steps of anticipating demobilization, equipment procedures and personnel procedures). Identify the required documentation submitted during demobilization.
 - 10.2 Describe the procedure for a properly conducted AAR.
 - 10.3 Discuss the difference in tasks between demobilization and transition.